DETAILED ACTION

- Examiner inadvertently failed to send copies of the considered Information

Disclosure Statements dated 6/9/2006 and 10/5/2005 at the time of allowance.

Examiner has enclosed these sheets and has considered Information Disclosure Statement mailed 10/11/2006 and enclosed that as well.

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-12 and 17-27 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Regarding claim 1, prior art of record does not disclose, in single or in combination, at least one input port programmably reconfigured such that a first programmable configuration of at least one input port to store data in a first input routing queue associated with a first output port, a second programmable configuration of at least one input port to store data in a first input routing queue associated with a second output port different from the first, at least one output port programmably reconfigured such that a first programmable configuration of at least one output port to store data in a first output routing queue associated with a first input port, a second programmable configuration of at least one output port to store data in a first output routing queue associated with a second input port different from the first input port in combination with other limitations of the claim.

Claim 11 is allowable due to the inclusion of allowable subject matter of claim 16.

Regarding claims 19-25, please refer to previous office action for reasons for indicating allowable subject matter.

Claim 26 is allowable due to allowable subject matter language of claim 13.

Claim 27 is allowable due to allowable subject matter language of claim 14.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
